From Volume 45, Number 1, 1993, the title of Soviet Studies was changed to Europe-Asia Studies.

The Editors' decision to change the title of the long established Soviet Studies, first published in 1949, followed the collapse of the Soviet Union at the end of 1991. It reflected the belief that as a result the countries of the former Soviet and East European area would gradually become more closely linked with both Europe and Asia, while continuing to present distinctive topics for research as a result of their specific experience.

Soviet Studies was the principal academic journal in the world devoted to the political, economic and social affairs of what were once the Soviet bloc countries, including their history during the Soviet period.

Europe-Asia Studies continues to focus on this body of research topics. At the same time, the new title is intended to reflect the way in which the transformation of these countries' political and economic systems is affecting their relationship with the rest of Europe, and the growing links between what was Soviet Central Asia and other countries in both Europe and Asia. The comparison with the similar transformation taking place in China is a further element in the general broadening of the field of what used to be called Soviet Studies. All submitted articles are refereed by a board of academic specialists in the journal's fields of coverage.

Editorial correspondence, submitted articles, reviews and books for review should be addressed to the Editor, Europe-Asia Studies, 29 Bute Gardens, Glasgow G12 8RS, UK, not to any individual (Email: Europe-Asia@gla.ac.uk).

Business correspondence, including orders and remittances for subscriptions, advertisements, back numbers and offprints, should be addressed to the publisher: Carfax Publishing Company, P.O. Box 25, Abingdon, Oxfordshire OX14 3UE, UK.

US Mailing agents: Europe-Asia Studies is published by Carfax Publishing Company, PO Box 25, Abingdon, Oxfordshire OX14 3UE, UK. Second class US postage is paid at Newark, NJ. Postmaster: please send all address changes to Europe-Asia Studies, Carfax Publishing Company, 875–81 Massachusetts Avenue, Cambridge, MA 02139, USA.

The Journal is published eight times a year in January, March, May, June, July, September, November and December. These eight issues constitute one volume.
